The Richardson Memorial Library has completed another year of service and with few incidents of special note.

In November we were visited by Miss Grace Kingsland of the State Library who was much pleased with the work of the library especially with our children's room.

I would especially thank Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoskins for the magazines they so kindly gave us last fall and wish I could tell them of the pleasure they bring to many a "shut-in" these long winter days.

I would express my gratitude to the board of trustees for their help in all matters pertaining to the interest of the library.

Respectfully submitted,

JERUSHA ELIZABETH PARKER, Librarian.
